NEW FACES AT THE CORRIDOR

A NEW MEMBER HAS BEEN NAMED TO THE NORTH IOWA CORRIDOR BOARD.

The Corridor is governed by a 20-member Board of Directors that works closely with local community development organizations, financial institutions, businesses, industries, as well as agencies and elected officials in local, county, state and federal government. Members are appointed both by our public partners and by way of a Nominating Committee. Nominations are accepted year-round

COLLIN DAVISON is a partner at Heiny Law Firm, Mason City. His practice includes both litigation, including commercial and personal injury, as well as transactions such as real estate and estate planning.

Collin earned his bachelor's degree in business from Drake University in 2009 and his law degree from the same institution in 2011. While studying law at Drake, he served as the Law Review's Editor-in-Chief.

Collin and his wife, Kristin, have two children. He has served on various community boards and committees, including the Iowa State Bar Association's Board of Governors. The balance of Collin's schedule is filled watching their sons at various sporting events.

PUBLIC HEALTH IS ECONOMIC HEALTH

By working together, we can keep North Iowa healthy and open for business. The North Iowa Corridor has joined with our community partners in supporting the Mask of Wellness initiative.

This positive movement supports and promotes 'COVID-Conscious' businesses so together we can Keep North Iowa Open. Businesses can sign up and self-certify at www.maskofwellness.com, pledging that they will take three simple actions to maintain the safety of employees and customers of their establishments:

- MASKS: Masks worn by every employee in all shared areas of the work environment
- HYGIENE: Practice personal, surface, and distance hygiene
- HEALTH: Conduct daily health self-certification

The Mask of Wellness program is available to anyone and it takes less than a minute to sign up.
